EXPERTS TO MAKE TALKS AT MASONIC TEMPLE; BOARD OF DIRECTORS MEETS

W. W. Weir, president of the Retail Merchants' Credit association of Los Angeles, and J. H. Van De Water, manager of the same organization, will be the principal speakers at the Chamber of Commerce forum luncheon to be held here tomorrow noon at the Masonic Temple.

Several other credit men will be present and a large percentage of the membership is expected to attend. All of those intending to be present should telephone Glendale 1262 and ask Secretary James M. Rhoades to make reservations for them.

The talks on credits will interest every business man in the city and undoubtedly they will prove most illuminating to others who do not come in direct contact with accounts wherein the question of ability to pay arises.

Meeting of Directors

At the weekly luncheon of the board of directors at the model bungalow in the Glendale Union High School domestic science department yesterday noon, it was agreed that the Glendale Chamber should become a member of the United States Chamber of Commerce and their secretary join the National Association of Commercial Secretaries.

Richardson D. White gave a lengthy report on the auto park situation which covered every phase of the discussion at Pasadena on March 17 and he stated that other cities had found parks more successful where small fees were collected from the tourists. He will attend a similar meeting at Long Beach April 12 at which time a complete set of regulations will be prepared for adoption by the various municipal auto parks. It is proposed to establish such accommodations in this city this summer. City Forester F. A. Marek is investigating the project for the city.

Spur Track Is Planned

It was stated to the board of directors that W. O. Bruess, who proposes to establish several industries along the Southern Pacific right-of-way, is making arrangements for a spur track, light, water and power for industrial sites there.

Mrs. Edgar Leavitt of 212 South Orange street was elected to a reserve membership. A financial report was made by Secretary Rhoades and bills were ordered paid. A membership committee, the report of the advertising committee and other routine matters were dispensed with while the board enjoyed grape sherbet as the "top" piece of a delightful luncheon served by students in Miss Ellen J. Hanson's cooking classes. The Misses Dorothy Kendall and Katherine Gray planned the meal.

They also took other scenes of natural beauty to be found in Verdugo canyon, it is said. They color these pictures and sell them throughout the state at souvenir stores.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH FRIENDLY SOCIETY HOLDS SESSION

PLANS ARE BEING MADE FOR BAZAAR; ORGANIZATION IS OPEN TO NEW MEMBERS

The Girls' Friendly Society of the Episcopal church held its regular weekly meeting in the social hall of the church last night. The meeting was called to order by the president, Miss Louise Ayala.

After the reading of the minutes by the secretary, Miss Galer, current events were read. These dwelt principally on the death of John Burroughs, the naturalist. A chapter from his book "The Ways of Nature," dealing with the wit of a duck, was very much enjoyed.

Plans were made for the activities at the next meeting to be held next Tuesday, which time will be devoted to work for the bazaar to be given at La Ramada the first part of June.

There were fifteen girls present last night. The society is open to girls of any church or no church.

Clifford Archer Has Chance For Recovery

Friends of Clifford Archer, who spent last winter with relatives in Glendale, will be pleased to hear that after a lingering illness of seven months he has finally passed the crisis and now has a chance for complete recovery. Word to this effect has just been received by his aunt, Mrs. Belle Arthur of 511 East Howard street, in a letter sent from the sanitarium in a suburb of Seattle, in which her nephew is convalescing. However, in order to regain normal health he will have to remain in bed six months more. Last year he attended the College of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons of Los Angeles.

MISS RUTH WILSON HONOR GUEST AT LINEN SHOWER

BRIDE-ELECT IS HONORED BY NUMBER OF FRIENDS AT MISS SULLIVAN'S HOME

Miss Eileen Sullivan of 711 South Central avenue entertained last night with a very unique linen shower in honor of Miss Ruth Wilson of 118 North Louise street, who leaves for New York next Monday to be married to Louis A. Lewis. The table in the spacious living room was circled with baskets of blue and yellow crepe paper, filled with favors, and decorated with tiny kewpies holding fans. Contrasting colored ribbons were attached to these baskets from the chandelier. The table was centered with a large kewpie, dressed in blue and yellow and holding one of the baskets, which was for Miss Wilson.

These baskets also contained the names of Miss Wilson and Mr. Lewis. The living room was decorated with white roses and the dining room table was centered with a basket of pink roses.

Will They Be Brides?

Miss Wilson was handed a bag of clothes pins, which contained among the other pins, three which were tied with different colored ribbons. Miss Wilson passed the bag around and the guests were told to draw one. Miss Isabel Yates drew the pin tied with the blue ribbon, which was supposed to mean that she would be married some time this year. Miss Louise Ayala drew the one tied with a lavender ribbon, supposed to mean that she was to be married next, and Miss Manola Budd, who drew the one tied with a white ribbon, supposed to mean that she was to be an old maid.

One of the features of the evening's entertainment which provoked much laughter was when the hostess passed around paper and pencils and instructed the guests to write suggestions for training a husband. These were then read by Miss Wilson and certainly were very clever. One of them was as follows: "Grab 'em young! Treat 'em rough! Tell 'em nothing!"

Piano solos by Miss Gertrude Champlain and vocal solos by Miss Isabel Yates were then enjoyed.

Mock Wedding Is Held

A mock wedding was then in order. Miss Wilson was the bride, Miss Louise Ayala, the bridegroom, Miss Dorothy Hunt, the bride's mother, and Lillian Schick the minister. They were all dressed in funny costumes.

After the ceremony the members of the wedding party were told to kneel beneath the Japanese umbrella, which was suspended in the archway between the living and dining rooms, for the blessing. The umbrella was then turned right side up and the blessing proved to be a shower of linens which poured down on the guest of honor. After these many lovely gifts were unwrapped and displayed. Refreshments were served by the Messrs. Albert Sullivan, Robert Sullivan and Francis Gordon, whose service was that of experienced caterers.

The guests included Miss Ruth Wilson, Miss Harriet Cook, Miss Louise Ayala, Miss Gertrude Champlain, Miss Isabel Yates, Miss Lillian Schick, Miss Dorothy Hunt, Miss Dorothy Carmack, Miss Ruth Waters, Miss Ruth Spafford, Miss Ruth Ryan, Miss Manola Budd, Mrs. T. R. Yates, Mrs. E. W. Hunt, Mrs. Bertha Wilson, Mrs. William Sullivan, Miss Eileen Sullivan, the hostess and her mother, Mrs. Robert W. Sullivan, who assisted her during the evening.

Cat Made To Look Like Lion So That It Won't Be Stolen

"O, look at the little lion. Isn't it cute?"

That was the surprised expression of one of the many women visiting Verdugo Woodlands yesterday with the F. P. Newport company. It was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Russell that she saw the strange looking animal.

Then Mrs. Russell had to explain that it was "Teddy," a Persian cat, which was clipped with the exception of the mane.

"I lost one beautiful Persian while the home seekers were here and I decided that they wouldn't steal this cat if I had to make it look like a lion," explained Mrs. Russell.

LINEBERGER VISITS HARDING

WASHINGTON, April 6.—Congressman Walter Lineberger of California held a conference with President Harding this morning.

Real Estate Agent Offers Big Bargain To One Having Time

Here's a bargain for a borrower.

Somebody "borrowed" the alarm clock from A. J. Lucas' real estate office desk at 309 South Brand boulevard, yesterday noon.

Mr. Lucas admits he only paid $1.25 for the 5 o'clock rattler, but he wants it back.

So he offers to buy a new clock, one that strikes every hour and chimes every half hour, if the alarm is brought back.

And no questions will be asked.

MOTHER IS SUBJECT OF MEETING FOR CHURCH CLASS

MRS. ROBERT MORROW HOSTESS TO MEMBERS; PROGRAM IS IN CHARGE OF MRS. G. ADAMS

The R. T. W. class of the First Baptist church held its regular monthly meeting yesterday afternoon, April 5, at the home of Mrs. Robert Morrow, 516 West Doran street. The devotionals were led by the president, Mrs. C. S. Jewsbury and a short business meeting was held.

The program for the afternoon was in charge of Mrs. Grover Adams, who made a very interesting talk on the topic of "Motherhood." Different articles and poems were read on this subject and Mrs. Ray Bentley sang a beautiful song of "Mother."

Each member brought a little gift, and together these formed the layette which is to be given to a sick friend.

At the close of the program refreshments were served, consisting of hot cinnamon rolls and coffee. There were twenty-five members present. A large basket of beautiful spring flowers formed the chief note of decorations.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Emma Sudlow, 202 East Garfield avenue.

THEATRE OPENING IS SOCIAL EVENT

JENSEN'S RAYMOND ATTRACTS GREAT CROWD; 5000 ARE UNABLE TO ENTER

Jensen's Raymond theatre in Pasadena—the fourth of their circuit of picture play and vaudeville houses—opened last night for its two initial performances with 5000 of the socially-elect of the Crown City in attendance.

While the many who had invitations sent out by Messrs. Robert and Walter Jensen were enabled to attend, fully 5000 more people who fought for the few remaining seats in the beautiful new cinema palace were turned away. According to theatre men from all over southern California who were present, it was the largest "first night" they had ever witnessed.

And well was it worth such an ovation for Jensen's new Raymond theatre represents a million dollar investment and the building and its appointments surpass anything on the coast, it is said.

From the opening overtures to the final numbers on the long programs last night everything was a success according to Robert Jensen, one of the managers, who resides here and personally directs the destinies of the Palace Grand theatre, which is the original Jensen theatrical enterprise.

In the personnel of the new theatre, several names familiar to theatregoers here are noted in addition to W. F. and R. S. Jensen, the managers. Frank Cutler Kendall, musical director, formerly wielded the baton in the Palace Grand pit. J. E. Foy, chief projectionist, was here for two years and William Wrightman, chief electrician, also formerly worked at the local Jensen playhouse.

KANSAS FARMERS PLANT TENTH LESS WHEAT ACREAGE

SALINA, Kan., April 6.—Kansas farmers planted one-tenth less acreage in wheat this year than last, according to crop estimates made today by Maurice McAuliffe, president of the Kansas Farmers' Union, who said freezes and heavy winds in March had damaged 35 per cent of the wheat crop.

ELIHU ROOT CONFINED TO HOTEL BY SLIGHT ILLNESS

SAN FRANCISCO, April 6.—Elihu Root is reported confined to his apartments at a San Francisco hotel by slight illness today. He has been here several days resting. An engagement to address an "Americanization" mass meeting with Major General Wood here last night was cancelled on account of his illness.

NEBRASKA FARMERS FAIL TO CARRY OUT THEIR THREAT

LINCOLN, Neb., April 6.—Farmers of Nebraska failed to carry out the threat made last year of reducing wheat acreage because of the low prices, according to a statement today by A. E. Anderson of the federal bureau of crop estimates showing that winter wheat sown last fall was only 2 per cent less than that of a year ago and far exceeds the ten-year average.

MEXICAN GOVERNMENT SEEKS TO SUPPRESS UPRISINGS

MEXICO CITY, April 6.—Government forces took the trail today to suppress two new bandit uprisings. General Manuel Perez Fernandez, captured in the state of Chiapas after a number of raids, faced summary execution today. In Coahuila cavalrymen chased a band recruited by Candido Aguilar, son-in-law of former President Carranza, who is agitating a rebellion.

U. S. TO BE ASKED TO ATTEND ALLIED CONFERENCE

PARIS, April 6.—The United States will be asked into an allied conference to "show her hand" in the game of settling the war, it was predicted in official circles here today. In such a conference America will be asked to indicate which settlements are approved and which she disapproved; which ones she believes she should decide and to help devise methods of settlement for the others.

FORMER EMPEROR CARL TO BE PRACTICALLY PRISONER

BERNE, April 6.—Former Emperor Carl will be practically a prisoner on his return here today. New regulations drawn because of his attempt to regain his throne provide that he must abstain from political plotting and that he shall notify the government forty-eight hours in advance if he plans to leave Switzerland. The rules were to be read to him by military officers on his arrival at Busch.

SEVENTH DRAW IN CHAMPIONSHIP CHESS CONTEST

HAVANA, Cuba, April 6.—The seventh draw in the championship chess match here between Emanuel Lasker and Jose Capablanca was recorded today. Capablanca has one victory to his credit. The eighth game was drawn as the players sat down to resume play discontinued Sunday night. The players agreed that the thirty moves on Sunday night had left them in position where neither could win.

QUARTER MILLION DOLLARS DAMAGE IN TEXAS CYCLONE

CLARENDON, Texas, April 6—Damage approximated at a quarter of a million dollars was done here last night when a cyclone struck the main street of this city, smashing plate glass windows, wrenching awnings and signs out of place and leaving debris in its wake. Fire started in the business section shortly after 11 o'clock and wiped out three business buildings. No reports of persons being killed or seriously injured in the tornado have been made this morning.

COAL MINERS AGREE TO MEET OWNERS IN CONFERENCE

LONDON, April 6.—Striking British coal miners this afternoon agreed to the government's proposition that they again meet mine owners in an effort to end the industrial war. The proposal for them to negotiate direct with the collieries was made by Premier Lloyd George in a letter to the miners and owners. In this letter he said the government tendered its good offices in an endeavor to bring about an agreement.

GOVERNMENT MAKES INQUIRY INTO CROP ESTIMATE

WASHINGTON, April 6.—The government, through the crop estimate bureau of the department of agriculture, is investigating reports that American farmers have reduced the crop acreage because of the low prices for farm products. According to information received by the bureau of markets, leading cotton planters, who months ago began urging decreased production, have been partially successful. Cotton is now selling at the lowest prices in months. Other farm products are off nearly 100 per cent.

IOWA FARMERS DID NOT GO ON WHEAT STRIKE, REPORT

DES MOINES, Iowa, April 6—The "wheat strike" of Iowa farmers, threatened last fall because of tumbling prices and difficulties in marketing, has failed to materialize, it was learned today. In the fall of 1919 Iowa agriculturalists sowed 458,000 acres of winter wheat, while last fall 420,000 acres were planted to the same grain, according to Frank A. Pinney of the federal bureau of crop estimates here. The decrease of only 38,000 acres in wheat does not indicate a "wheat strike movement," according to Pinney.

BUYING IS FEATURE OF N. Y. STOCK MARKET TODAY

NEW YORK, April 6.—Buying which marked yesterday's close in the New York stock market was continued at the opening today. Optimistic business reports were numerous and the list generally responded. Other oils responded to the statement. Crucible Steel was up ¾ at 86½ and U. S. Steel was unchanged. Motors were stronger, Studebaker opening at 77½, up 5-8.

REGULAR FAIRYLAND BEING MADE FOR VERDUGO HOME

MR. AND MRS. G. D. MASON HAVE ATTRACTIVE ESTATE WITH NUMEROUS FEATURES

In years to come there is apt to be a story not unlike "Alice in Wonderland," except that the Alice of tomorrow will walk out to Verdugo Woodlands in the northeastern part of Glendale and visit the estate of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Mason.

At present there is only the beginning and it will take three more years of development work to bring this wonderland into any semblance of what it shall be like, but to walk around the place at the corner of El Rito Way and Bonita Drive there is one surprise in store after another.

The spacious grounds which are terraced have been planted to a score of variety of trees including French plum, fig, peach, prune, pear, apple, apricot, walnut, almond, orange and grapefruit. Then, too, there are dewberries, loganberries, three kinds of blackberries and raspberries.

Poppies from Flanders

In the gardens which are planted in five mounds there are Flanders poppies, carnations, lilacs, three kinds of geraniums, hibiscus, roses and a little of everything in the way of flowers.

Then there are the sunken gardens and lily ponds and fountains and an octagon pergola to be built around a weeping willow tree. The house, which is still to be built, only the garage and gardener's quarters having been erected for the temporary occupancy of Mr. and Mrs. Mason, will have its entrance along the live spring stream in Verdugo canyon. It will be of Mission style and two stories high.

In the sycamore park to the rear, Mr. and Mrs. Mason are developing what they please to call "Fern Lodge," a little cobblestone retreat where guests can be entertained on Saturdays. There is an open hearth and a pergola for serving while the lodge itself is a comfortable room with a big, open fireplace.

House Built in Tree

Among the features of the Mason home that appeal to the observer of the unusual is the century-old sycamore tree in which a house not unlike that of Swiss Family Robinson has been built. Here Mr. Mason has sleeping accommodations for visitors, his private reading room and a wonderful view of the valley. A rustic staircase leads up to the retreat.

On this same tree, a gnarled stump of a severed limb is painted red and resembles a dragon's head. It is to be lighted this summer and will add an awesome atmosphere to the beautiful evenings to be spent in the sycamore park.

A herb garden has been planted, too, along with other vegetables, but why should one think of such common things when it is a wonderland to be seen?

A. G. Spohr in Party Flying to San Diego

A. G. Spohr of Spohr's drug store, Brand and Broadway, was the guest of a party of Mason City, Ia., bankers with whom he is acquainted, on an airplane ride to San Diego yesterday. The party of seven, including Pilot E. L. Remelin, made the trip south in the Mercury's monoplane in 1 hour and 30 minutes. Returning late yesterday afternoon against the wind, it took ten minutes longer, according to Mr. Spohr. Others in the party were J. G. Melson, T. A. Potter and G. M. Clark, all of Mason City. T. A. Dille and W. D. Waterman of Los Angeles. The latter is an airplane manufacturer and Mr. Melson has his own plane at Mason City. It was no new experience for any of the party, but proved a comfortable sky ride.

Women's Auxiliary Of Legion Meets

The Women's Auxiliary of the American Legion Post No. 127 held its regular meeting Monday night in the Post headquarters on East Broadway. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. J. F. McBryde.

It was announced that a week from Friday, which would be April 15, there is to be a meeting of the members of the Legion and their friends who wish to attend, at which time Buron Fitts, the state commander of the American Legion will speak. Other numbers of entertainment will also be given at that time.

After the business meeting last night Mrs. George E. Clayton, Mrs. E. P. Hayward and Mrs. J. F. McBryde served sandwiches and coffee.

QUARTERLY SESSION HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY HELD

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH IS SCENE OF GATHERING; FINE PROGRAM PRESENTED

The Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Southern California Conference held its quarterly meeting yesterday in the First Methodist church of Glendale. This was conducted in the form of a demonstration program by conference officers and secretaries of departments.

Mrs. Coats, conference president, was in the chair. Mrs. E. Hoskins conducted the devotional exercises in the morning. Mrs. Coats then gave a short talk and appointed committees for the day.

The missionary educational demonstration was splendidly conducted by Mrs. Swett, secretary of the work. Mrs. Jones conducted the home missionary. A story of "The Yuma Indians" was very cleverly told by Mrs. Lloyd. "Money Talks" by Mrs. Scudder was also very good. The five secretaries then presented their efficiency cards, which showed the work which had been done during the year. The morning session was closed by a prayer given by Mrs. Jewel. There were 300 served at the noon luncheon, everyone bringing their own lunch, and coffee was furnished by the society.

Devotional Meeting

The devotional meeting in the afternoon was conducted by Mrs. C. M. Crist. Children from the various church homes were present and took part in the program, including children from the "David and Margaret Home" and also some Japanese children. Mrs. Coats, conference president, explained about the work which is being done in San Diego. The meeting closed with a prayer.

Mrs. B. F. Geiger is president of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of Glendale.

The W. F. Dyk place at 423 West Vine street has been sold by the same firm to Paul F. Babcock and Mr. Lucas has sold his former home at 556 West Colorado boulevard to W. R. Brand who has started alterations.

Through the same agency Paul F. Caldwell, one of the purchasers of the Morgan home, has bought Martin Johannes' six room bungalow at 4100 LaClede avenue in Los Angeles. Why We Are the Cleanest Clothed People in the World
Clothes sent "out" in Siam are usually washed in a village pond. Blow-can sprinkling is universal among the Chinese. In Mexico it is well known that laundresses rent out apparel of their patrons. Europe, too, has its unusual customs.
Yet, clothes look clean in these countries—the difference is that with us, clothes are sterilized as well as cleansed.
Everything in the family bundle is washed in five to ten baths of cleansing suds and rainsoft water when you send it to us.
Sterilized, superheated air is used in drying.
Clean clothes never come into contact with the soiled—wrapping in aseptic paper, in a special shipping room is the final step.
Your family washing, sent to us, is refreshed and cleansed and cleansed inwardly and outwardly—actually made purer than the milk we drink.
To be sure of this service that is safe and saving; to be sure of protection for your own health and that of your family; to secure help that will take all of the inconvenience and work of washday out of your home, 'phone us today and our driver will call for your family bundle.

There were 120 present. The church dining room was decorated with red, white and blue flowers.

The committee in charge of the event consisted of Mrs. Charles Starkey, Mrs. W. F. Knox, Mrs. Frank Matthiesen and Mrs. Stella Miller.

After the dinner some very unique games were provided by the entertainment committee, of which Miss Zella Kiem and Miss Rose Peck were members.

Next Monday night the J. O. C. class are planning to give a little play, "The Milkmaids' Convention."

Frost Injures Grapes

An April frost in Glendale! Such was almost the case, while at Fresno it is reported that a small part of the raisin crop was destroyed by the cold weather. Thompson Seedless and Malaga grapes are said to have suffered the most.

Must Talk of Laws

Willie Popoff, a San Pedro auto bus driver, convicted of having been operating his machine while intoxicated, was sentenced to pay a $500 fine, $400 of which was remitted on the proviso that he preach the gospel of obeying laws to the Russian colony of which he is a member.

Quarrel Not Ended

Over at Burbank the Chamber of Commerce quarrel goes merrily along with the town lined up about evenly pro and con on the subject of reorganizing that august body of citizens. Truly, the slogan which the American City Bureau uses in its publicity, "United we stand, divided we fall," seems to be proving true in the case of Burbank.

Cargo of Lemons

The Liberator, with the largest cargo of lemons ever shipped from the Pacific coast, has docked at New York. Now for the lemonade on East Forty-fourth street. And the lemon seltzers on Fifth Avenue. The steamer made the trip in twenty days with 10,000 boxes of the crop—which was lemon—aboard.

Life Imprisonment

James Elder, former Pittsburg policeman, will be sentenced Friday to life imprisonment as a result of his conviction by a jury last evening in Los Angeles of the murder of his wife, Ida.

Elder shot and killed his wife, who was living apart from him. He pleaded that he fired at a man who was in her company. Life imprisonment was recommended by the jurors.

Boy Bandit Jailed

"The only reason I didn't kill anyone, I guess, was because my revolver wouldn't explode," said Frank Bitter, 16, of Valparaiso, Ind., in the Los Angeles city jail today.

He robbed a grocery messenger here late yesterday of a satchel containing $1500 and was captured after he had held a crowd at bay for fifteen minutes. Bitter said he came here from Indiana on a freight train last week.

Boxing Bill Gains Support Of Legion

SACRAMENTO, April 6.—A bill placing the control of boxing in the hands of a state commission of three, recently introduced in the legislature by Senator William S. Scott of San Francisco was unanimously indorsed last night by the Sacramento post of the American Legion.

Scott's bill, which is modeled after the successful New York boxing law, includes a provision legalizing fifteen round bouts.

They See Them, So Sign Up In Hurry

PITTSBURG—In an effort to reform the "hooch chasers" of McKees Rocks, a nearby borough, Chief of Police Street has imported six Mexican pine and bullhead snakes.

The snakes, harmless, are six feet in length and extremely dangerous looking. A special cell, called the "terror box," houses the reptiles and when a drunk is brought in he is given a berth with the snakes.

When he awakes and finds himself among them he can obtain his release only by signing the pledge. The snakes are fed on mice.

SURPRISE VISIT BY DISTRICT DEPUTY TO REBEKAHS

MRS. VIOLA GRANT COMES HERE AND IS GIVEN WELCOME BY CARNATION LODGE

Carnation Lodge of Rebekahs, which met in regular session last night, were surprised by a visit from the district deputy president, Mrs. Viola Grant, from Gardena. She was accompanied by her warden, Della House, and a number of members from Eidelweis lodge of Los Angeles.

The noble grand of Carnation lodge being absent, the vice-grand, Mrs. Rosetta Strothers, acted as noble grand. Mrs. S. A. Anderson acted as vice-grand.

During the regular business meeting four candidates were elected to membership by transfer and one by initiation. These members are to be initiated at the next meeting. There will be a special social meeting at that time.

Mrs. Rosetta Strothers, Mrs. Mollie Cleland and Mrs. R. M. McGee will constitute the committee for the arrangements.

Other Visitors Present

Other visiting members present at last night's meeting were Marie Neher, Jessie Billingsley and Sarah Whipple of Bellingham, Washington.

The district deputy president gave an instructive talk and also illustrated the secret work of the lodge. This was followed by other talks, among them the interesting talk by the noble grand of Glendale I. O. O. F. Lodge No. 338, R. M. McGee.

Although this was a surprise visit from the district deputy president, there was a good attendance present to greet her.

Storm Is Blessing, Says Weather Expert

SALT LAKE CITY, April 6.—Instead of proving disastrous to the fruit interests of the state as was feared Monday when the weather man saw it coming, the storm of the past two days brought the biggest snowfall of the winter, and has developed into an unmixed blessing which means millions of dollars to Utah, in the opinion of J. Cecil Alter, chief of the local weather bureau.

The whole state of Utah has received a thorough wetting that will be a boon to farmers and livestock men everywhere.

Some slight damage has been reported from tree branches breaking under the heavy snow and some wires are down.

From Ogden comes the report that the heavy gales preceding the snow storm lashed the heavy waters of Great Salt Lake into huge waves that washed out a portion of the west end of the Lucin cut off on the Southern Pacific at a place known as the Rambo fill. Between 500 and 800 carloads of rock will be necessary to make repairs, but in the meantime there will be no delay in train service, officials said.

Farmers To Maintain Normal Food Acreage

WASHINGTON, April 6.—Despite the lowest price since ante-war days, American farmers will maintain practically a normal acreage in food crops this year, according to telegraphic information obtained from the chief agricultural areas by the United Press today.

Minnesota, Iowa and Nebraska reported the usual wheat acreage. Only Kansas showed a reduced acreage, about 10 per cent less than last year.

The government, through the department of agriculture, is investigating reports of a threatened "farmers' strike," but so far has found nothing to indicate such a move.

Cotton planters were said to have reduced their acreage appreciably.

Makes Plea Behalf Housing Commission

SACRAMENTO, April 6.—S. J. Lubin, president of the immigration and housing commission, appeared before the joint reorganization committee last night and presented his plea to the legislators to save the commission from consolidation with other agencies under the so-called Fischer bill and the governor's reorganization plan.

The immigration and housing commission saves the state a half million dollars yearly, said Lubin. Lubin declared the commission was already consolidated, having three distinct functions—housing law enforcement, labor camp inspection and Americanization work among immigrants.

Judge A. E. Grauptner, industrial accident commission; Katherine Phillip Edson, industrial welfare board, and Labor Commissioner McLaughlin denied duplication of functions and challenged proponents of reorganization to prove extravagance.

"Every time is train time at grade crossings," is the latest slogan adopted by the Long Island Railroad, of New York.

Removes Chief Of Badger Fish House

MADISON, Wis.—James Nevin, for twenty-eight years in charge of Wisconsin fish hatcheries as a member of the conservation commission, will be removed from this position by Governor John J. Blaine, and B. O. Webster of Delafield placed in his position if the senate confirms the nomination.

Mr. Nevin came into office during the administration of George W. Peck and has weathered every political change since, without having his position tampered with. It was during his service that fishing grew into an established industry in Wisconsin.

His successor has been engaged in fish culture for twenty-two years, according to announcement by the governor. He commenced his work at Northville, Mich., for the United States bureau of fisheries and was employed in government service for seven years.

During the last ten years he has served as assistant superintendent of fisheries at the Delafield hatchery, being in charge of pike and bass hatching. The position is for a term of six years with a salary of $3500 annually.

Unemployed Pensioners To Be Sent To School

LONDON—Owing to frequent abuses of the out-of-work dole, under new regulations made by the Minister of Labor, an insurance officer may require any insured contributor who applies for out-of-work benefit to go school.

Many of the thousands now drawing unemployment benefit are not anxious to find a job. A recent example of abuse of the government dole was the case of a woman who had been drawing the out-of-work pay for months. Fearing it was coming to an end, she accepted a post as cook at $260 a year, board, laundry, lodging, etc., furnished. On the day her employer was expecting her, he received a letter instead, announcing that "as the government has decided to continue the out-of-work benefit, I have decided not to accept the position you offered."

Employers declare that the unemployment benefit is merely subsidizing idleness, and those taxpayers who are eking out existence on any kind of a job so long as it is a job, are beginning to feel sore at the way the government is being hoodwinked, especially as they have to defray the cost of the hoodwinkers' upkeep.

Ice Cream Places Closed To Pet Dogs

JERSEY CITY, N. J.—Sweet-toothed members of the canine elite who have been regular patrons of Jersey City's ice cream and soda emporiums, left their silken cushions recently to bark protest against the latest order of the city commission.

The order, effective immediately, prohibits the keeping or taking of dogs into any candy, confection or soda water shop. It was issued following a complaint filed by the New Jersey Retail Candy and Ice Cream Manufacturers' association that dogs were served from the same dishes used by humans.

Corporate Tax Rate Suggested By Expert

LANSING, Mich. — Prof. David Friday, of the University of Michigan, who has been analyzing the state's financial condition, reported to Governor Groesbeck that a franchise tax on corporations, to yield $6,000,000 in July this year, is the only way to avert the crisis which now threatens the state as the result of the present huge deficit in the state treasury.

Prof. Friday also recommended that the state highway program, adopted by the 1919 legislature, providing for the expenditure of $50,000,000 on highway construction in the ten-year period following, be revised so that this program may be completed by 1925. Such a revision, he pointed out, would enable the department to push its construction work vigorously and at the same time relieve unemployment.

If his recommendations are followed, Prof. Friday said, the state not only will have funds for the payment of all expenses of state government during the present calendar year, but also for the completion of buildings now under construction, and "it will come to the end of 1921 with a small cash balance on hand." A bill embodying Prof. Friday's recommendations is to be presented to the legislature.

Declares Public At Fault In Enforcement

PHILADELPHIA—J. F. Kramer, federal prohibition commissioner, addressing a meeting of the Friends' Temperance society here, emphasized his assertion that responsibility for faulty conditions in law enforcement lay with the people, some of them church members, who do not accept the responsibilities in keeping the law.

"Obedience to laws that we don't like is the real test of a man or a woman," he said.

Denying that prohibition had been "put over" on the people, he said the question had been discussed for seventy-five years and laws had been in practice in some parts of the country for fifty years.

Slayer Kills Himself As Police Close In

NEW YORK—Cornered in a telephone booth after having been chased through the streets by several hundred people, an unidentified man committed suicide rather than submit to arrest for murder. He shot Morris Bealkin, a merchant, while attempting to rob his place of business, the police say.

Clerk Excused, Boss Is Put Upon Jury

Three-Year Sleep Is Broken For Minute

FORT SMITH, Ark.—James Eslinger, 54 years old, who has been asleep for nearly three years, awoke yesterday in the county hospital here, yawned and then went back to sleep, according to the nurse attending him. He did not speak, she said.

Eslinger entered the hospital in 1914. In August, 1918, he fell into the sleep which was broken for the first time yesterday. He has been fed through a tube and has not lost weight. Physicians have declared themselves powerless to break the slumber.

Sirens on any automobiles, other than police and fire department motor cars and ambulances, are prohibited in Kansas City, Mo.

Prepared to launch a terrific attack upon profiteering landlords, five carloads of militant tenants from Chicago arrived in Springfield recently. Upon their arrival they formed in line and paraded to the capital waving banners and placards designed to produce the proper effect upon the members of the legislature.

Chicago "gold brick" artists tried to sell the library building to a policeman off duty but he induced them to accept a section of the city jail in trade.

SIXTEEN REELS OF JOY AND THRILLS, ONE BIG SHOW

WONDERFUL PICTURE PROGRAM BACKED BY GREAT MUSIC, AT GLENDALE TONIGHT

A preview plus a double comedy bill plus regular features plus excellent music on the southland's greatest theatre organ equals the best motion picture show to be found.

Add to this the personal attendance of the stars of the feature film previewed in the sixteen reels of joy thrills and melodrama and you have only one answer.

That is to see the Glendale theatre's one big show from 7:30 p. m. to 11 p. m. tonight only. Of the regular program this can be said as it played to record audiences last night:

Harold Lloyd in "Now or Never" proves himself to be the monarch of the comedies; Harry Gribben and Eva Novak in "Up in Mary's Attic" keep the humorous pitch high and people laughed until they cried last night: the Pathe Review shows the latest in women's hats while Madame Clement plays "Where Did You Get That Hat?"

Preview of American Classic

And then the preview. It isn't customary to tell the title of such pictures, but let Landers Stevens, Glendale film star who has seen the same picture in Hollywood, tell of it:

"You will see a preview of an American classic inspired by the art of Frederick Remington, written and produced by John P. McCarthy, inventor of wireless telephones, who for seven years was the technical electrical director with David Wark Griffith productions.

"It is an unusual picture. At its preview at the Astor theatre in New York recently it simply set the exhibitors afire," said Mr. Stevens, "in their efforts to buy first rights. According to W. H. Hoffman of the Pioneer Film Exchange which bought the state rights there, McCarthy ranks with Griffith, DeMille and Ince. It is a wonderful western."

Historic Spots May Give Way To Demands

LONDON—Two picturesque slices of old London, known to tens of thousands of Americans may soon be scooped away to satisfy the demands of commerce. Soho and the parish of St. Giles—or Seven Dials, as it is better known—are about to begin their passage into history and be converted into the most modern business district of the metropolis, possibly a second city of London.

Soho, which probably derived its name from the Duke of Monmouth's famous battlecry "Soho" at Sedgemoor, has experienced many vicissitudes of fortune. In the olden days regarded as one of the fashionable quarters of London, it gradually became the home of Bohemianism and the haunt of Sam Pepys and Goldsmith. Today its dingy, uninviting streets are lined with French, Italian and Swiss restaurants, where Londoners and visitors may learn what the much-praised foreign cooking really is.

The whole district is now almost entirely inhabited by foreigners and is the favorite meeting place of the anarchists of the "tame" variety. For long it was looked upon as the equivalent of the Montmarte, but never at any time has it attained the attractiveness or liveliness of that gay Parisian quarter.

MISS ALICE H. FRANK WRITES OF INTERESTING CONDITIONS IN TEXAS

Tells of Business Outlook; Describes People of the Back Country, Their Habits and Home Life

Alice H. Frank, daughter of Mrs. Harriet F. Frank, 1558 East Wilson, now in Texas, wrote the following interesting letter to the editor of The Glendale Evening News:

Forest Hill, April 2, 1921.

Editor News: Nearly five months have elapsed now since I left the sunny Southland. How time flies! The winter this year has been such a contrast to the last one. No shortage of gas, no terrible rains or a lot of real cold weather. On the contrary it has been more like our California winters. Although numbers of oil wells around Dallas are not as active, new fields have opened up, and there is plenty doing down here. The cotton market has been very poor here, owing to the drop in the market. The farmers paid war-time prices for the labor and of course when the prices dropped, it meant almost a dead loss to them. However, they take it right cheerfully and make the best of it. The merchants are the greatest losers, however, as their customers, the farmers, are unable to meet their yearly accounts and the banks refuse to carry them.

When I first came to Dallas after election the depression had already reached here. It certainly has been bad. Everybody has been holding onto their own with an iron grip. Just now things are starting to loosen up and business picking up in general.

Stay Very Enjoyable

My stay here has been more enjoyable than ever, partly on account of the many dear friends I had made on my last visit and partly because I have been busy in more than one way, and also successful in my undertakings. It has been my great good fortune while here in Dallas to secure a beautiful gallery for my pictures in Bush Temple on Elm street, one of Dallas' principal business streets. The pictures look truly beautiful there and have been greatly admired by many true art lovers. It has also been my great privilege during my stay here to meet with many of the celebrities of both the art and musical world. This has been, due partly to the fact that I am living with friends who belong to that circle of people. This makes my stay indeed most agreeable. It was my great pleasure to attend the opening night of the grand opera at the Coliseum (the Chicago Grand Opera Company in "Carmen"). Mary Garden sang "Carmen." I was a little disappointed in her as I think a her a bit too old for that part. Instead of playing the part of a coquette she takes it more on the order of a "vamp." Well, the house was packed, close to 5000 people, I imagine, and it certainly was a brilliant sight, the many beautifully gowned women and well groomed men.

Dallas is building a couple of new show-houses, but as yet there is no legitimate stage here, only pictures and vaudeville. They have improved many of the pikes around here this last year, so that it really is a pleasure to go out driving now. At present I am domiciled out in Oak Lawn, one of the most beautiful residential parts of Dallas. How refreshing and restful to get away from the business heart of the busy city.

Far Out in Country

Since last Thursday though, I have been away out in the country, about twelve miles distant from a little place called Windsboro, and the county seat, a very small town called Quitman. It was indeed an accident that I came out here last Thursday. I got a call to leave Dallas within an hour or two to wait on a patient who was suffering with an acute attack of appendicitis. My train arrived at 12:35 that night at Windsboro, and I was met at the station by the doctor. He took me over to a little, rickety hotel, where I was met by the fat, sleepy-eyed proprietor of the place. After devouring a piece of pie and a glass of buttermilk I was taken up to my room, if you could call it such. The only whole, clean piece of furniture there was my bed, which had just been made up fresh. One broken chair, a rickety, dirty dresser, (probably handed down from some great grandparents) and the old iron bed was all the furniture in my room. I was glad at that, as at least the dirt was all in plain view then. At about 4 a. m. they started waking up all the folks around me. This kept up until about 7 o'clock when they started to serve breakfast. At about 10 o'clock I was called for in a rickety little old Ford by two doctors and I again started on my cross-country trip. Over hills and plains, through woodlands and corn fields the little old Ford tore through. It was truly a beautiful ride, just in the spring of the year when everything was beginning to bud. When we arrived at our destination I thought we had stopped at a country inn, as dozens of young and old farmers in big felt hats and high boots stood around the place and were seated on the porch. I was informed, however, this was just the family and some neighbors. My patient was an old man past 60 years, the father of nine living sons and three daughters. (No race suicide in this part of the country). Everybody had quit work on the farm that day to witness the operation. The operating surgeon soon had all men around busy, some improvising an operating table out of a couple of saw-horses and boards, others dragging all surplus furniture out of the room, chasing flies and a million other things. I truly never saw a busier crowd in my life. Well, in an hour or so all was ready for the momentous operation. Three doctors and myself worked fast and silently and in little less than an hour our patient had been sewed up and put back to bed. It was the neatest operation I ever saw performed, practically bloodless. The room was lined with spectators and also the windows overlooking the porch were crowded, but thinned out as the operation proceeded. May I mention here that the good doctor administering the ether never once stopped chewing his tobacco and spitting. This may sound awful, but out here in Texas in the country all the men and boys chew, and the women dip snuff. I guess they'd think something was wrong with them if they didn't. The men out here never shave their faces but once every month or two. Oh, it is a strange, wild country, the custom of which it is hard to get used to. Most of the country houses are neither plastered or papered, just plain board walls and floors, but very little, if hardly any furniture or carpets. Wood stoves and open grates to heat and cook on. Oil lamps are generally used. They have a few old-fashioned phones, but each party has to keep up their own batteries. Ten parties on one line and the charge is 50 cents a month. Their beds give you the creeps to look at. No sheets. If people are wealthy they may use one, but stacks of colored quilts to sleep under, and in winter time a good old-fashioned feather bed to sleep on. They raise geese for this purpose and pluck the poor things alive for this use. Fifty or sixty geese have feathers enough to make one bed, they say. At night these good country folk never undress, just kick off their shoes and hop into bed, their hair arranges itself, I guess, as I have never seen any use a brush or comb as yet. The women rarely take off their sunbonnets and the men their hats in the houses. Everyone dresses as he or she pleases. They generally eat at a long wooden table, covered with oilcloth. Benches are mostly placed around the table and only chairs for the honored guests. They have very little variety in cooking. Salted meat (pork fried), turnips, greens, pinto (red) beans, rice, biscuit and syrup, coffee (if you want to call it by a name), or buttermilk and corn bread. This is the menu three times a day, 365 days a year. How do they live on it. I am starving for a good beefsteak and French fried potatoes and French drip coffee right now. These good people have no market for their eggs, milk and butter this year, and the highest price they get for these goods is 10 cents a pound for butter and 10 cents for a dozen eggs. You can't sell the milk. They churn every day as they have no ice to keep their goods on, and what buttermilk is not consumed by the families is fed to the pigs and chickens. The butter that is over they make soap out of. To think that we pay over 80 cents a pound for butter in Dallas and 25 cents for a quart of milk! Farm hands are paid $25 per month here. Men and women both till the land and it is not an uncommon sight to see a woman ploughing. At home the women slave for their men. The men are the lords of the home. They eat first and the women must wait patiently, to wait on the men, and do not touch food until they are done. They also do the milking and make the fires and draw the well water. On Sunday afternoon or evening the good folks sit around the fire, the men chewing their tobacco and the women dipping their snuff, all joining in spitting into the flames. They are all quite religiously inclined and rarely work Sundays. The church is practically all the social life they have. Here a person is judged by what they are, not what they have. I asked a man the other day about a certain woman and he said: "Do you mean is she a good house-keeper?" They are extremely hospitable and neighborly here. In case of trouble or sorrow all the neighbors for miles around come over to help out to the best of their ability. You never met kinder spoken people. Speak about large families! You can't beat them "nowhere, nowise," as they say here. Why, the family I am with now have all told eighteen members and close to 100 counting "in-laws" and grand children and cousins, etc. There is hardly a family out here with less than nine youngsters.

Very Few Automobiles

You see but few autos here, but a great many horses are used for riding and driving. The other day they ran a young calf through a sheep dip to show me how it was done. The animal is corraled, run through a slough and is able to get out the other side; it must plunge into about fourteen feet of water and swim to the other side. They have sheep dip in this water which kills the ticks. This has to be done every month. Ticks and red bugs are so thick in the summer time that the people have to skin their fowl to be able to eat them. One old farmer told me the other day that the mosquitos were so thick around here last year that they pushed him into the creek!

It is funny to see how the men wait on me here. They hardly let me move a finger. They build the fire, clean the room, run errands and a million other things for me. In fact they treat me like a little princess and are trying to entertain me all the time. It seems so strange these men who are really unaccustomed to such chivraly try so hard to do for me, because I am helping one of their own. The Texan is truly big hearted, generous and extremely grateful.

Just a couple more days and I will be leaving for Dallas again, the city which has cast such a spell over me. I love the life and the people of Dallas, but in May I expect I will be homeward bound once more. Home again to my dear ones and my friends in Glendale for a little while.

My heartiest greetings to all my dear friends, big and small.

A. H. FRANK.

P. S.—Every Saturday evening the young people have a "sing" meeting at different homes every time. This is the one time the young men meet their girls and bring them home.

LOCAL CREAMERY IS WINNER OF HIGH SCORE IN TEST

GLENDALE COMPANY AWARDED EXCELLENT RATING AFTER THOROUGH INQUIRY

The Glendale Creamery won fresh laurels when tabulations made by Dr. Joseph P. Bushong, chief milk inspector, were completed yesterday, covering tests made since December 20, 1920, and classifying all dairymen on a score of points for delivery of certified milk, guaranteed milk and raw milk.

The scoring system allows 35 points for the bacterial count, 15 points for flavor and odor, 10 points for absence of sediment, 16 points for butter fat, 15 points for solids other than fat, 5 points for acidity and 5 points for appearance of the package.

In the gradings for guaranteed milk the Glendale Creamery was third in the county. In Grade A pasteurized milk (retail) the Glendale Creamery was fourth with a score of 95.3 with twelve creameries listed, some scoring as low as 58.2. For Grade A pasteurized milk (wholesale) the local creamery appears second with a score of 94.7.

Stockton Told To Make Building Law

STOCKTON — This city must at once adopt strict building laws, F. A. Roberts, representative of the National Board of Fire Underwriters, declared to Stockton trustees. Roberts made this report to the city governors after a several days' investigation of fire conditions here.

He said that many of the city's buildings are poor in construction and weak and unwarrantable hazards are taken in storage of inflammable liquids. Due to the absence of building regulations proper regulations are now being drawn.

E. L. MIDDLETON ON SHIP AFTER HIS VISIT IN CITY

GLENDALE BOY IS NOW FIRST CLASS YEOMAN; GETS HIS DISCHARGE IN OCTOBER

E. L. Middleton, former Glendale High school student and now first-class yeoman in the navy, spent a few hours visiting old friends and schoolmates yesterday prior to sailing for Bremerton, Washington. He is asigned to the Neptune, which has been anchored at Los Angeles harbor for the past week, and which was scheduled to sail this morning at 11 o'clock. Middleton expects to remain in the northern city until April 20, when they will sail for Philadelphia via the Panama Canal.

Yeoman Middleton enlisted in the navy in April, 1918, when he was a junior in the local high school. After being stationed at the Naval Observatory at Mare Island several months he was assigned to the transport Nausemond, on which he made five round trips to France.

Largest Collier Afloat

After the war he was assigned to his present ship, the Neptune, which is the largest collier afloat. Since then he has sailed around South America four times, also to Mexico, the Philippines, the Orient and Alaska. Of all the countries and cities that he has visited, however, he claims that Glendale is the real "God's country."

Young Middleton expects to receive his final discharge papers next October, after which he plans on taking up the study of astronomy.

While in Glendale he was the guest of Howard Merriken.

SHAKESPEARE WILL BE FEATURED BY CLUB WOMEN

REHEARSAL IS HELD AT HOME OF MRS. C. L. CANFIELD, AT 519 OAK STREET

The Shakespeare section of the Tuesday Afternoon club, of which Mrs. O. E. Von Oven is curator, met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. L. Canfield, 519 Oak street.

As was stated by Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, president, at the last meeting of the Tuesday Afternoon club, Glendale was singled out from all the clubs in the district and a distinct favor conferred upon its members. They have been asked to put on a half-hour Shakespearean program the first day of the convention, which will be April 19.

Before the regular business meeting of the section, this act was rehearsed. At the business meeting it was decided that a series of silver teas would be given next month. The fourth act of the "Comedy of Errors" was taken up at this time.

After the meeting, dainty refreshments were served by the hostess. Decorations of roses and spring flowers were used to decorate the rooms.

SUPER-FILM IS BEING SHOWN AT PALACE GRAND; 5000 PERSONS IN SCENE

The most recent of super-film plays, "Passion," which opens an engagement at the Palace Grand Theatre today, is said to mark a new epoch in motion pictures. "Passion" is an intimate version of the story of a little French milliner who rose to a position commanding a king and affecting the destinies of a nation. It is presented as an Associated First National attraction and it comes to this city with an actual record for establishing new ideals in screen production.

Aside from its reputed new technical perfections there is a depth of panoramic perspective hitherto unknown to the silversheet and instanced by the passion of huge mobs rising in their might to overthrow the mighty, and of which there have been plenty of demonstrations lately in the form of strikes and rebellions.

One of the big scenes in this photo-dramatic spectacle is the storming of a mammoth barricaded prison by a mob of 5000 impassioned citizens, all of which becomes doubly impressive and realistic through the stereoscopic character of the new photography which displaces the flat photography that so often makes the illusion difficult. By this system are picturized not only shadows and reflections, but bodies and scenes which seem endowed with their true dimensions, it is said. This novelty within itself should mark a distinct novelty which will arouse wide interest since the progress of the cinema development is being so closely watched by interested millions of devotees.

The cast in "Passion" is headed by Pola Negri, the famous Continental star, and her portrayal of the leading character is said to set a new high mark in motion picture artistry.

Great Britain Goes On War Basis Today

By ED L. KEEN
United Press Staff Correspondent

LONDON, April 6.—Great Britain went on a war basis today to fight an industrial revolution growing out of the coal strike.

Railway men and transport workers, the latter pledged to their utmost to help the coal men, were to decide on the united action to win a victory for the miners.

A victory here would mean saving their own wage scales a little later, they believed.

Aristocrats in the most exclusive sections of London awoke today to the bugle's reveille. During the night large bodies of troops moved into parks, prepared to mount guard over food stores.

Kensington Gardens became an armed camp overnight. Three thousand guardsmen pitched their tents on the sward and threw out their guard lines. The gardens later will become a great food storehouse.

Hyde Park will become a camp today.

The streets were filled with troops on the march and with individual soldiers preparing to join their "outfits."

There was a great deal of mystery regarding some of the troop movements. The appearance of whole companies at railway stations led to the belief that great numbers already have been dispatched to danger points in the mining district and industrial centers.

Thus far, neither sailors nor soldiers have been asked to take over the work of the strikers.

Sporadic violence was reported from the mining regions. In Cowdenbeath, Fifeshire, a great mob fought with police guarding one pit. A mine manager, who was attempting to prevent the flooding of the mine, was severely beaten. Policemen rescued the manager, but the mob continued to grow. A red flag was run up and for a time the police were threatened seriously.

Ralph DePalma May Lose Racing Honors

That Ralph DePalma, famed Italian speed demon, will probably lose the championship laurels he won in the Washington's Birthday speedway races when he meets Tommy Milton, Roscoe Sarles, Jimmy Murphy, Ira Vail, Joe Thomas, Eddie Pullen and Eddie Hearne in the American Sprint Championships at the Los Angeles speedway on Sunday, April 10, is the consensus of opinion among the racing fans who follow the game closely.

DePalma's victory in February was so decisive that he gained many new followers in addition to the huge army of admirers which always cheer his colors. But many things have happened since February. Frederick Deusenberg has succeeded in getting many miles an hour more speed out of his four cars than he could coax out of the cylinders a month ago. Tommy Milton has injected new life into the car with which he took second to DePalma in the last races. And Deusenberg has drafted two new drivers to handle his speed creations. One of the two is Eddie Pullen, considered the greatest short distance driver in the country. The other, Joe Thomas, is also a different type than was ever on the famous "Deusie" team.

Although much trouble developed in the selection of a referee for the events, Barney Oldfield withdrawing a few days ago, declaring that there was so much rough driving in the last race and that indications were favorable for a repetition of the same tactics in the coming races that he did not care to officiate. After a three-day search for a man capable of ruling the drivers with an iron hand, Captain Eddie Rickenbacker, American Ace, was selected. "Rick" knows all the tricks of the game and will handle, without gloves, any of the pilots who show disrespect for the track rules.

D. J. Grauman Dies After Short Illness

LOS ANGELES, April 6.—D. J. Grauman, veteran California theatrical man and motion picture exhibitor, is dead today in his Hollywood residence. He died suddenly last evening, presumably of heart disease, after an illness of only a day.

Grauman gained a nationwide reputation as a film exhibitor. He was 68 years old. Eighteen years ago he opened the old Unique theatre in San Francisco, later branching out with playhouses in San Jose, Stockton, Sacramento, Oakland and Fresno. Later came the Lyceum, the Imperial and other San Francisco showhouses, and finally he built his famous Million-Dollar theatre here. Sig Grauman, his only son, was associated with him in his enterprises. A widow and the son survive him.

Says Mine Industry Is Facing Extinction

By LLOYD ALLEN
United Press Staff Correspondent

LONDON, April 6.—The British coal mining industry on which the life of the nation depends, is threatened with extinction by the miners' strike, Evan Williams, leader of the colliery owners, warned today in an exclusive interview with the United Press.

"The miners threaten to bring disaster on owners and workmen alike," Williams said. "We are doing our utmost to save the pits and to save the workmen from the terrible consequences of their action.

"Flooding of mines, destruction of property and excessive wage demands will crush the industry," he declared. "No man will risk his finances in a business which can be disrupted so easily, he said, and the present owners cannot afford to salvage their ruined properties.

"The difference between us and the miners is basic," he said. "The miners are demanding a national pooling of all mining and finance which will destroy efficiency and bring disaster to owners and workmen alike.

"It also will bring disaster to every industry dependent upon coal as well as the nation which exports it.

"Even if the pooling plan were adopted, it would be necessary to reduce wages. So what the men really are demanding is a subsidy to maintain pay at the present high levels. They want other workmen taxed more in order to retain their scale."

Williams, as president of the coal mining association, will have a voice in the final negotiations.

First Day's Results Pacific Coast League

SAN FRANCISCO, April 6.—San Francisco, Los Angeles and Sacramento—that's the winning trio of the first day of the Pacific Coast league.

These three teams stood today a full thousand points ahead of all the others, but of course that won't necessarily have much to do with where they'll stand along in the fall.

But the fans of the three California cities had a fine feeling of satisfaction over winning the openers.

Salt Lake and Oakland did not play. They went snow balling instead.

The Seals had a hard row to hoe in proving to Portland that the game was theirs. It was not until the seventh inning that the San Francisco gang crawled into the lead and won by a margin of a single run 7 to 6.

Sacramento didn't have any easier time beating the champion Tigers, 9 to 8. They did it, however, despite the fact that Vernon tallied twelve hits against only seven for the Solons. Five Vernon errors helped.

Down south the angels forgot the hospitality Los Angeles is supposed to show visitors and were selfish enough to help themselves to eight good runs and allowed their Seattle guests only one.

A total of approximately 30,000 people saw the three games. Twelve thousand turned out in San Francisco. Nearly 11,000 paid admissions at Los Angeles and 7,000 saw the Sacramento game.

Ballot To Support Striking Coal Miners

LONDON, April 6.—British transport workers today voted to support striking coal miners "in every way possible."

The form of action to be taken was left for decision after railway workers determined their attitude in the labor fight.

The transport workers asked for conferences with the two other groups to decide on united action of the "triple alliance."

Parliament Members Have Unhappy Life?

LONDON—A Member of Parliament's life is not a happy one.

In fact, various M. P.'s gathered themselves together into a select committee in order to prove just how unhappy a life they led. The general grievance of these men who represent constituencies is the same as that of the men who represent nothing—lack of cash. The salary of a member of parliament is 400 pounds a year—or about $1600, which, it is claimed, does not lift them "above the ordinary worries of the kitchen."

M. P.'s pointed out that their incomes only permitted them to travel third-class on the railways and they compared themselves to "Tarzan of the Apes" on account of the invariable and unnecessary exercise they got "straphanging" in the crowded trains each day.

The upshot of the whole investigation was that the following recommendations are to be made:

No change in M. P.'s salaries, but that the 400 pounds should be regarded as expenses and therefore not subject to income tax, which is very heavy in England.

That M. P.'s should have free first-class travel between London and their constituencies.

Free postage on parliamentary letters.
